

HIRING ANNOUNCEMENT

Hanover School Division Appoints Principal of Niverville Middle School

Steinbach, MB. June 5, 2020 - Hanover School Division Board of Trustees is pleased to announce that Craig Cumming has been appointed as principal of Niverville Middle School, effective 2020-2021 school year.

Craig is currently the vice-principal of Niverville Middle School, having transitioned from the former Niverville Collegiate Institute in the fall of 2019. Prior to his current role, Craig served as vice-principal of the Niverville Collegiate Institute (2013-2019) and Landmark Collegiate (2012-2013). Before joining the staff in Landmark, he served for 12 years at Niverville Collegiate Institute, having held the positions of guidance counsellor (2009-2012), acting principal (2008-2012), and teacher (2000-2009).

The Board of Trustees and senior administration of Hanover School Division congratulate Craig and wish him all the best in his new appointment.
