Board of Trustees Appoint Superintendent/CEO

Steinbach, MB. February 17, 2022 - The Board of Trustees is pleased to announce the appointment of Shelley Amos to the permanent position of Superintendent/CEO of the Hanover School Division.

Shelley brings 28 years of administrative and instructional experience to her new position. She has held the position of Interim Superintendent/CEO of the Hanover School Division since August 2020 and served as Assistant Superintendent from 2018-2020.

Prior to joining the senior administration of Hanover School Division, Shelley held the position of Principal at Woodlawn Early Years School from 2011-2018 and served as the school's Vice-Principal from 2009-2011. Her professional experience includes teaching in the Hanover School Division from 2002-2009, and before joining Hanover, she taught in the former Transcona-Springfield school division.

Shelley has earned a Bachelor of Education (1991), a Post-Baccalaureate Diploma in Special Education (2010), and a Master of Education in Educational Administration (2018).

"With the demise of Bill 64, we are now able to move forward in a strong position and officially appoint Shelley as Superintendent/CEO of the Hanover School Division," commented Ron Falk, HSD Board Chair. "Since Shelley's appointment to the Interim Superintendent position, she has demonstrated strong leadership through an unprecedented two-year pandemic that has been both challenging and turbulent for school divisions. As a Board, we are delighted that she has accepted this permanent position, and we fully support her vision for education moving forward."

The Board of Trustees congratulates Shelley on her official appointment as Superintendent/CEO of the Hanover School Division.
