Hanover School Division Appoints Interim Superintendent/CEO

Steinbach, MB. May 1, 2020 - The Board of Trustees is pleased to announce the appointment of Shelley Amos to the position of interim Superintendent/CEO of Hanover School Division, following the retirement of Randy Dueck at the end of this school year.

Mrs. Amos brings 26 years of administrative and instructional experience to her new appointment, having most recently served as Assistant Superintendent of Hanover School Division since the fall of 2018. Prior to her role as a divisional administrator, Mrs. Amos held the position of Principal at Woodlawn Early Years School from 2011-2018 and served as the school's Vice-Principal from 2009-2011. Her teaching experience includes seven years in Hanover from 2002-2009, and before joining HSD in 2002, Mrs. Amos taught in the former Transcona-Springfield school division. Early in her career, she served as Director of Spring Meadows School Age Centre. Mrs. Amos has earned a Bachelor of Education (1991), Post-Baccalaureate Diploma in Special Education (2010), and a Master of Education in Educational Administration (2018).

"Shelley has demonstrated exemplary leadership throughout her career. Her experience as a senior administrator, expertise in strategic planning, and in-depth knowledge of pedagogy make her an ideal candidate for this position. We are confident that her experience, knowledge, and leadership will continue to serve our students well, and we are thrilled that she has accepted this position," stated Hanover School Division Board Chair, Rick Peters.

On behalf of Hanover School Division, the Board of Trustees congratulates Mrs. Amos on her appointment to the position of interim Superintendent/CEO and wish her success in this new role.
