

HIRING ANNOUNCEMENT

Board of Trustees Appoint New Assistant Superintendent

Steinbach, MB. September 24, 2024 – The Board of Trustees is pleased to announce the appointment of Marlin Adrian as Assistant Superintendent of the Hanover School Division, effective November 1, 2024.

With 25 years of experience in the Hanover School Division, Marlin brings a deep understanding of the Division's history, values, and priorities. He is currently the Principal of Landmark Collegiate and previously served as Vice-Principal at Green Valley School. His teaching experience spans over 17 years, having taught senior years at Steinbach Regional Secondary School and middle years at Steinbach Junior High School. Marlin also holds a Master of Education in Educational Administration.

Throughout his career, Marlin has shown a commitment to fostering collaborative relationships with students, parents, staff, and fellow administrators, promoting a positive and cooperative work environment. His diverse background will equip him to contribute meaningfully to the Division's continued success.

The Board of Trustees congratulates Marlin and extends best wishes as he embarks on this new and exciting chapter in his career.
